KENTUCKY NEWS.

The Latest News From All Parts of the Commonwealth.

TERRIBLE DISASTER.

A Waterpump Wrecked a Farm House.—The Farmer, His Wife and a Child Killed. LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 3.—A special to the Post from Monticello, Ky., says: From a wagon driver who has arrived here news of a terrible disaster on White Oak creek, across in Tennessee, several miles from this town, is reported. A waterpump struck the farm house of a farmer named Brander, demolishing the house and killing the farmer, his wife and a child. The hands who were sleeping upstairs were so badly mangled they died in a few hours after the sheet of water struck the house. No further damage was done in the neighborhood so far as the teamster had learned.

IN POVERTY HE DIED.

John Werts, of Lexington, Once Worth $250,000, Buried by Friends. LEXINGTON, Ky., May 3.—John H. Werts, formerly one of the wealthiest citizens in Lexington, was buried in the Lexington cemetery. His friends made up a purse of $30, which paid for his coffin and grave, and Undertaker R. M. Ward contributed his services free. There were no funeral ceremonies, no services of song or prayer at the grave; not even a mourning relative or a sorrowing friend, and not a tear was shed. Thus was laid to rest the body of a man who, 40 years ago, was the leading clothier of central Kentucky, with branch houses in New York and London, and a working capital of over $250,000.

UNDER ARREST.

Three More Alleged Toilet Raiders Placed Behind Bars. HARRISBURG, Ky., May 3.—John Carrier, John Yeast and a man named Woods were lodged in jail here Sunday by Deputy Sheriff James and Detective Kimball, of Chicago. They are charged with being toilet raiders and with shooting Gatekeeper Carter, who was placed in jail Saturday on the same charge, spends most of his time in the morning. It is said many more arrests will follow Monday. The raiders are strong in numbers and Jailer Chatham has made arrangements to prevent a rescue should one be attempted.

FAYETTE'S PIKES.

Probably That the Year Will See All Toll Went to the Pike. LEXINGTON, Ky., May 3.—The fiscal court of Fayette county has offered the Nicholasville Turnpike Co. $1,500 per mile, for the use of the turnpike, to be paid by that company in this county. The company has stood out for $2,000 per mile, but the fiscal court has already freed so many roads that the carrying capacity of the Nicholasville pike has been materially lessened, and it is believed the company will accept the court's terms this week. The toll on every mile of turnpike in this county will be made free within the next 12 months.

The Horses Were Drowned.

DANVILLE, Ky., May 3.—The horses of the late John H. Thompson, who died during the past 18 hours have been drowned in the river.
